

WASHINGTON STATE EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT DIVISION

PUBLIC ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

HOWARD HANSEN DAM – RECOVERY PREPARATORY MEETING

November 10, 2009, 9am -11am

The State Emergency Management Division will be conducting training for public agencies on the Public Assistance Grant Program.

We will provide information on damage assessment and the procedures needed to obtain funding to the costs incurred as a result of a federally declared major disaster or emergency.

Who Should Consider Training?

Any Staff responsible for gathering and reporting damage assessment information:

- Municipal Administrators & Elected Officials
- School Administrators
- Program & Finance Staff
- Public Works Directors' & Facility Managers
- Emergency Services Personnel

Topics will include:

- Brief Overview – Federal Grant Program
- Forms – Correct process for filling out a Preliminary Damage Assessment
- Documentation – Required Backup
- Your Role – What we've learned from past disasters/emergencies
